WASHINGTON, April 19.—Addressing the thirty-fourth Continental Congress of the Daughters of the American Revolution tonight, Coolidge uttered a warning of the peril to the republic if the people fail to vote in the forthcoming election. "The danger to the republic is not in the hands of the revolution," he said, "but in the hands of the people who fail to vote."

He said that the republic is in danger because of the failure of the people to vote. "The danger to the republic is not in the hands of the revolution," he said, "but in the hands of the people who fail to vote."

The Railroad Commission, Interstate Commerce Commission, the people's engineers have declared in favor of grade crossing elimination in Los Angeles by means of a union depot in the Plaza area.

The railroad proposes to eliminate grade crossing by building a new line that will run from the Plaza to the city center, thus relieving the city of the menace of elevated lines.

WASHINGTON, April 19.—Twenty-five years ago in June, the first elevated line in this city was opened. The latest extension was placed in operation as late as 1915, bringing the combined length of the several routes to about ten miles, including the parts which extend into adjoining communities, yet are really an integral part of the Boston rapid transit system.

Within a few years of the establishment of the first elevated line, the city was faced with the problem of how to extend the system. The solution was found in the form of a rapid transit system.

DUTLER DECLARES WAR ON BOOZE IN MARINE CORPSStatement That Small Clique Will Not Defy Discipline Follows
Williams Conviction

WASHINGTON, April 19.—In the only authorized statement issued by Brig. Gen. Smedley Butler following the tacitly admitted conviction of Col. Alexander S. Williams for being drunk in the Coronado Hotel, he made a ringing denunciation of those who flout the laws to see if they can "get away with it." He refused to comment on further disciplinary action reported to be imminent at the Marine Base, nor would he say in so many words that he intends to "dry up" the Marine Base, as was reported here this afternoon.

His authorized statement, as given to George Killian of the San Diego Independent exclusively, and which will appear in that newspaper tomorrow morning, reads partly as follows:

"Impartial discipline in this command will be maintained despite all blurring by well-organized propagandists to the contrary."

USUAL MEASURES
This is issued, not as a defense or explanation, but to present an angle on this case that has not been apparent in all the mass of inspired publications circulated with a view to intimidation.

"The disciplinary measures taken in this instance were perfectly regular and usual for offenses of this nature in the Marine Corps. Unfortunately these assaults have not been made in the past, but have been extended to their viciousness, to the glorious record of the Marine Corps."

"A statement has been made that marines are good fighters and hard drinkers; this remark, made in connection with a plea for return of liquor to legal and general use in order to better our race, leads one to believe that marines are good fighters because they are hard drinkers and have shed their blood for the nation because they did not know what they were doing."

"As a marine I bitterly resent any suggestion that propagandists are the motive force of thousands of marines whose supreme sacrifice to duty has made our uniform a badge of honor."

SO-CALLED REFORM
The simple facts are these: A member of the United States service, governed by positive acts of Congress and regulations issued by the President, not only knowingly violated them, but did so in the face of the presence of his commanding officer, realizing that disciplinary action must follow.

"The real issue is: Shall the armed services of the government be allowed to obey the act of Congress?"

"Will some so-called social reformer determine the length of time a man can spend in the custody of his law-breaking host?"

"No justice can be expected of the minority which are determined to have their own way, right or wrong, law or no law, but the great fair-minded majority, which behaves itself and therefore needs no immunity or privilege, realize that this social ethics stuff is pure propaganda as all well-informed men know."

"I wish to acknowledge a debt of gratitude to Rear Admiral Ashely H. Robertson, who with full knowledge of the facts, so courteously and publicly stood by me. His example is inspiring."

"The fate of Col. Williams is now up to Washington. The action of the trial board this afternoon in announcing the termination of proceedings resulting from the charges brought against him by Gen. Butler was virtually an act of a verdict of guilty. Had Col. Williams been found not guilty, the board, through its president,

LIGHT PENALTY FORESEEN IN WILLIAMS CONVICTION

Colonel and Butler Taciturn After Court-martial Adjourns in Cocktail Hearing

Rear-Admiral Thomas A. Williams, Washington, would have no comment.

GENERALSHIP GONE

Whatever form the punishment may take, it is generally believed that the court-martial will adjourn in the next few days. The punishment may be, it is believed, put him down the seniority list that he cannot hope to attain the end of his term of service.

The findings which have not been disclosed, will be forwarded immediately to the office of the Judge-Advocate General, Washington, D. C. There the testimony and verdict will be reviewed and final cognizance of the sentence taken.

The maximum sentence possible is dismissal from the service, but the Judge-Advocate General, in his opinion, will not recommend such drastic action. Col. Williams may be reduced in rank, meaning that he will lose a certain number of points in the seniority list by which promotion is partly determined.

Col. Williams was not in court when the case was officially announced as concluded. He was outside the courtroom, but he did not come to comment. Gen. Butler also refused to comment.

NOT ENTIRELY SOBER

Word of the ending of the case came to Judge-Advocate General Williams from the chambers of the trial board at 1:40 p.m. Members of the board filed from the room without comment. Col. Williams, who had been in court since the beginning of the case, was seen to leave the courtroom.

The action of the seven members of the trial board may not mean he is believed to have been drunk. He had been in court since the beginning of the case, and he was seen to leave the courtroom.

The black mark against Col. Williams came at the end of two years of service. On the night of March 6, last, Gen. Butler, while standing at a reception room of the Coronado Hotel, saw "Bolo" Williams, his host of a few hours previously, in a condition which the Marine bandstand declared to be intoxication.

His manner was calm but taciturn. The drags of the Coronado cocktail obviously were bitter.

PAGES BEAT STEADILY

The case was under discussion in the trial board only an hour and a half. Deliberation began at 11:15 a.m. At 12:15 the court recessed for lunch, returning to chambers at 1:40. The case was announced ended at 1:40.

Throughout most of the period Col. Williams walked steadily back and forth over a distance of about fifty yards on the drill ground adjoining the building where the trial has been conducted. He has been seen when not in the courtroom ever since the trial was begun. At no time during the trial did Mrs. Williams leave the courtroom.

The largest single gathering heard closing arguments and was held in the courtroom. Most of the time when women, a preponderance which has characterized the speaker side of the room since day.

Throughout the entire proceeding Col. Williams spoke only a few words officially. On the first day when Judge-Advocate Hermie asked him what he had to say on the charges he declared:

"Not guilty." Today when asked in accordance with regulations if he cared to make any statement to the court before he retired, he said:

"I do not."

Members of the board retired to weigh the evidence at 11:10 a.m., with the completion of arguments by the Judge-Advocate and Attorney Lewis R. Kirby of the defense counsel.

In a brief opening statement Judge-Advocate Leo D. Hermie declared the charge has been proved beyond a doubt, asserting the defense of sickness was merely smoke screen to hide the real issue. He talked less than sixty seconds, reading the statement from a prepared piece of paper.

Because of this Attorney Kirby took occasion to comment, in the beginning of his address to the court, that the Judge-Advocate was "not unfair," but "ingenious," as it left defense counsel completely in the dark as to the exact points upon which the prosecution based its contention for conviction. "On the very same evidence," however, "we ask for a verdict of most honorably and fully acquitted," he stated, the use of the phrase "most honorably acquitted" being synonymous with a verdict that the charges never should have been filed.

IGNORES ARMY RANK

Kirby, his iron-gray hair tumbling about his forehead as he flung from the rostrum with impelling gestures, announced that he did not intend to attack the character of Gen. Butler, but that he did intend to treat him not as a brigadier-general, with the inference which applied to military men, but as a human being. He stressed the point that Gen. Butler was the only prosecuting witness who testified that he had seen Col. Williams take a drink, but Butler admitted that he had not tasted the drinks himself, so could not have had personal knowledge of the content.

"Against him," Kirby stated, "is the testimony of a man after man, a gentleman, a gentleman, after officer, that the liquid served was not intoxicating."

One witness, he pointed out, even asked the colonel if he was drinking anything, and Williams replied, "No, I am not drinking anything."

Neither Kirby nor Judge-Advocate Hermie, following him, made any reference to the use of the word "drinks" which was used by the asserted dures of Butler upon younger officers who had attended the party and had been called upon for statements.

Both prosecution and defense arguments termed the degree of intoxication a matter for the court to decide in its judicial wisdom.

SHORT OBSERVATION

Kirby emphasized the fact that Butler had Col. Williams under personal observation for only a minute and a half at the Coronado Hotel. During that time, he declared, several persons were between the two men, the lights of the side room where they stood had been dimmed and added that Gen. Butler had been pronounced by navy dentists as suffering from "nervous and physical" because of the difficulties he had undergone with twelve infanteries.

"How in the name of reason, under such conditions," Kirby demanded, "could one man, after a minute's observation, pronounce another unqualifiedly drunk?"

"Gen. Butler is a man of strong character. He is a man who will brook no contradiction. For nearly three days after the episode at the hotel he was under the impression that this Col. Williams was another Williams who had been charged with intoxication. He has admitted that by the time he learned the difference the charge had been filed."

"Then there is his record. For twenty-seven years we have known him. There is not a blot upon it, with the exception that once a drunken man came into his room and another time he made a mistake in saluting an officer."

Judge-Advocate Hermie, in his reply, argued that the defense had offered not one single shred of positive testimony. "They have offered nothing but innuendoes," he said. "They have presented a case characterized not so much by weak links as missing links."

WHY NOT A DOCTOR?

He made much of the fact that part. It cannot be denied that in the splendor and glamor of our life the moral sense is sometimes blinded. It cannot be disputed that in too many quarters there is a lack of reverence for authority and of obedience to law. Such occurrences are sporadic and produce their own remedy. When society finds that its life and property are in peril from evil-doers, it is very quick to organize its forces for its own protection. That cannot fail to be done in our country, for our people, as a whole, are thoroughly law-abiding.

But our greatest danger lies not in violence and crime. Mr. Coolidge said. "Far more serious is the shrinking of those responsibilities of citizenship, where the evil may not be so noticeable, but it is more insidious and likely to be more devastating."

We live in a republic, the President continued. "A vital principle of that form of government is representation. More and more, as our population increases, it becomes necessary for the people to express their will through their duly chosen delegates. If we are to maintain the principles that governments derive their just powers from the consent of the governed, it is altogether necessary that in each election there should be a fairly full participation by all the qualified voters."

PRACTICE ON INCREASE

Disregard for the duty of voting has steadily increased since 1880. In the sixteen years following the average was 68 per cent of the electorate. In the 1910 and 1914 Presidential elections, the average declined to less than 50 per cent. Since that time, the average has been steadily increasing. Once election day is over, the average is 60 per cent or less. The President said that the average of the obligations of citizenship.

All that the President said changed perhaps by new conditions and habits, increased opportunities for recreation and new modes of life, due to inventions and the growth of cities, but probably by "some deeper" and more fundamental causes.

FORCE USED BY BUTLER TO CLAMP LID ON 'CAFES'

Padlock Invoked in New Drives Aimed at Palaces of Jazz; Council Battle Rages

This is the fourteenth installment of Gen. Butler's story of his struggle against vice and crime in Philadelphia.

BY BRIG. GEN. SMEDLEY D. BUTLER, U.S.M.C., Former Director of Public Safety, Philadelphia, Pa.

Heartened by the Mayor's announcement that he would seek to have my lease extended that I might continue my war, and my health and spirits improved through rest, I returned to my office for real work late in October, to find that the police had "carried on" well, under the direction of George Elliott. I saw, however, that this was a psychological time to spur them on to new and greater activity. It was the time to show that the rumors fed them about my early dismissal were wrong.

New drives were inaugurated. The glided jazz palaces in the heart of the city, known as cafes, felt the ax. All were raided. Liquor was sold in many of the others patrons were permitted to drink—against the law. In most of them dancing continued past the hour permitted by law. One by one we raided them.

Raided did no good so we turned to the revocation of their dance licenses. The cafe management took it to the courts and in the first instance, that of the Claridge Cafe, Judge Bonnell, a member of the Municipal Court and avowed wet, issued an order restraining police from interfering with the dancing. About my special counsel, advised me that a judge of the Municipal Court had no jurisdiction in the case.

STOPPED BY FORCE That night, it was a Saturday and the busiest night of the week, the cafe, permitted dancing, displaying the order of Judge Bonnell. I sent detectives in and they stopped dancing by force. The case went to the Court of Common Pleas and Judge McDermott, fearing it as his worst, upheld the police and the Mayor in the revocation of dance licenses.

Thus armed with a new and effective weapon, we began to revoke the licenses of all the cafes we found operating illegally. Soon none of the places was open. We raided a hotel—the Majestic. There were two dance halls in this establishment, operating under one license, one in the main ballroom, and one in a grill, operated by outsiders, we were told, under the name of the Silver Slipper Cafe. It was the cafe portion we raided.

In accordance with our usual policy, the police recommended to the Mayor that the license of the hotel be revoked. He decided to do so, he told me, and wished to assume full responsibility for the action. That was fine, I thought.

But nothing happened. He was gripped by the question by the newspapers and gave noncommittal answers. Finally he called me in, after the manager and others had called upon him, and advised me that it would be unsafe to close up the dance hall of a "big place like the Majestic" because the cafe had violated the law.

HOTEL GOES ON He informed me that he had told the manager of the hotel to "divorce" the cafe from the hotel, get separate licenses for the two, then revoke the license of the cafe but permitted the hotel to operate.

Soon we turned to padlocking the properties of law violators—the only effective weapon, we found, in our hands. Whenever a saloon or other place had been successfully raided three times for liquor-law violations, under the state dry law, known as the Snyder law, we instituted padlock proceedings.

In this manner we soon padlocked scores of properties so that they could not be used for any purpose whatsoever for a period of one year. Several of the closed cafes, particularly the notorious ones conducted by disreputable individuals and frequently by underworld characters, were among the places padlocked.

A Chinese tong war was on throughout the nation and soon reached Philadelphia. After the first outbreak orders were issued that unless the war ceased immediately, police would round up every Chinese in Philadelphia and deport those unable to prove their right to be in this country. Deportation is the most effective weapon in American law dealing with orientals, since most of them are in this country illegally. Five or six were deported and the tong war ceased at once. Philadelphia had less disturbance along this line than any of the other great metropolitan cities.

WORK CONTINUES While police activity was at its maximum, with arrests and raids increasing and crime being cut down, the reorganizing plan was slowly but surely being carried into effect, station by station, despite the opposition of the politicians, as evidenced in the refusal of Council to appropriate the funds necessary to its quick consummation.

The Mayor, in the meantime, publicly had reiterated his intention of asking the President to extend my leave. The budget for

PAUL REVERE'S RIDE REPEATED

History Turned Back 151 Years as Beacon Flash from North Church

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE) BOSTON, April 19.—History turned back 151 years here today. Once more two warning beacons flashed their message from the tower of the old north church—the British were coming by sea.

Once more a Revere and a Dawes mounted their horses and dashed off to spread the alarm "through every Middlesex village and farm."

No British ships menaced the harbor today, however. "Paul Revere," was Sgt. Geoffrey T. Clifford and William Dawes, Jr., his companion rider. It was just a part of Massachusetts' annual celebration of Patriots' Day.

Riches for Protestants, on the other hand, mean greater opportunity for charity, and, in the end, divine blessing.

The cardinal yesterday told a conference of the St. Vincent de Paul Society that he had ceased to hope for material prosperity for Catholics because they often were not ready for it.

"I used to think," the cardinal said, "that it would be a good thing to help along our Catholic people to become materially very well to do, prosperous, happy, and content. You lose them when they do. I won't say in every single case. There are noble men and women. Catholics who have become enormously wealthy and who live simple, beautiful lives. But as a general rule, it is most unfortunate."

REVEREND REMAIN POOR "I wish I had not to say, but it is the common sentiment of all of us who know that some Catholics are much better off than they remain poor than to have acquired large fortunes; much better for their own lives and for their prospects of heaven; better for their own characters, because so often we see the result of sudden attainment of wealth that ends in the silliest kind of vanity and pride. I shan't mislead you."

The reason is they are not ready for this great wealth. When they get it they do not know how to use it and they become closed up like clams in a shell, just perfecting themselves in the interior of the shell of vanity which they have woven around them, and you can't teach them anything. They have lost touch with the world, with real life and the cause of it is their silly vanity which they have a few million dollars.

LOSE HEADS "Our people get suddenly rich and lose their heads and hearts. Protestant people of today, if they seem to be lacking in external—what shall I say, demonstrations—of religion, have become wonderfully charitable, if they do not so to churchmen making an appeal to their cause and do not close themselves up and hold tight to every dollar that is coming to them.

"Now that is true. Remember, these non-Catholics who are contentedly giving millions of money to great causes will certainly receive God's blessing. There is no question about that. God will dwell with them in their living charity of which He is the center and the heart."

The cardinal praised the poor and middle class of the faith, who, he said, were generous and noble-hearted to a fault.

French Divorce Decrees Not to Become Public

(BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS) PARIS, April 19.—The judges of the Divorce Court at Nice have decided unofficially that their decisions need never become public unless released by one of the parties, or when future litigation demands the publication of the court's findings. This decision, which apparently goes some distance in establishing a "perfect divorce center," is expected to more than triple the court's work during the coming year.

Americans can procure a divorce in Nice in the record time of twenty-one days, providing both parties have complied with the spirit of the law and have registered a declaration of intention as regards their future domicile.

The French law that no woman can remarry until 300 days after her divorce is not applied to foreigners, who are forced only to wait the seventy days during which either party can file an appeal to the decision.

Slight Earth Tremor Felt at San Diego

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE) SAN DIEGO, April 19.—A slight earthquake was felt in San Diego and vicinity shortly after 7 a.m. today. The tremor was brief and was so slight that most San Diegans did not feel it.

CALEXICO, April 19.—A series of distinct earthquake shocks was felt in several Imperial Valley towns at 7:15 a.m. today. The shocks were light and of about twenty seconds duration. No damage was reported.

EX-CONSUL AND BRIDE REPORTED AS PARTED

(BY CABLE-EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH) PARIS, April 19.—Harry Hayes Morgan, former United States Consul at Glasgow and brother to the widow of Reginald Vanderbilt, is reported as being separated from his bride, Mrs. Iva O'Connor Morgan, and it is said the pair expect a divorce soon. Mrs. Morgan, who is the step-daughter of Col. Francis Drake, brinner of the American Legion here, who accompanied Marshal Foch on his tour of America, is a popular figure in the American colony of Paris. The couple formerly entertained lavishly.

PETTIS NAMED WARDON

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH) PHOENIX, April 19.—O. D. Pettis, appointed State game warden, for ten years served in the warden's department of Arizona. He has received at least fifty applications for the place, which was made vacant by the death of G. M. Willard.

TRAFFIC SYSTEM HERE URGED FOR HONOLULU

(BY CABLE-EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH) HONOLULU (T. H.) April 19.—Sheriff David K. Traak, chief of police of the city and county of Honolulu, was so impressed with the Los Angeles traffic control on his recent visit that he is recommending the adoption here of a number of features which Los Angeles is using. Honolulu's street traffic is showing the tendency common to American cities of congestion during "peak" hours.

The per capita operation of cars here is high and in the downtown district business is increasing so rapidly that a grave traffic problem is presented. Traak strongly favors the boulevard stop system for suburban districts as used in Los Angeles.

MORE THAN HALF A CENTURY OF PROGRESSIVE BANKING SERVICE

What are YOU doing with your "Gold Dust"?

BAGS of gold dust, left with a merchant for safe keeping — really led to the founding of the Farmers and Merchants National Bank of Los Angeles.

The time was back in the sixties — the merchant was I. W. Hellman — and the gold dust belonged to miners who left it in his care because he had about the only safe in town. They "checked" against their "accounts" from time to time by the simple process of pouring out some of the dust into an envelope or smaller bag, and leaving the rest in the safe.

Two things about the practice Mr. Hellman didn't like: the difficulty of keeping track of how much was "deposited" and "checked out" and the economic waste of having that gold idle, earning nothing for its owners. The solution was a bank to convert the dust into cash, place the cash to the miners' credit and let it work for them at interest.

Thus these bags of gold — these crude SAVINGS ACCOUNTS — became the nucleus of an institution which now has resources of over $55,000,000.

Your gold dust comes to you in the form of a salary check. But you need exactly what those miners needed — a means to help you save and make your savings earn for you. You will find it just where those miners found it half a century ago — in the Savings Department of this bank.

TROJAN STARS DEPART TODAY

Houser, Grumbles and Dye Pull Out This Morning

Coach Cromwell Takes Men to Drake Relays

Expect U.S.C. Athletes to Clean Up in Midwest

BY BRAVEN DYER

Bound for Des Moines, Iowa, where on Friday and Saturday they are to compete in the Drake relays, Bud Houser, Leighton Dye and Kenneth Grumbles will step aboard the train this morning.

Accompanying the three U.S.C. athletes will be Dean Cromwell, coach of the Trojan track team. Departure will be made at 8:45 a.m., the rattle pulling out from the Southern Pacific station.

The party is slated to reach Des Moines Thursday night.

Cromwell has received no complete entry list from Drake officials, so has only a vague idea what opposition his men will be called upon to face.

However, neither he nor the athletes are doing any worrying. All three are national intercollegiate champions, and Houser, in addition, now holds the world's discus record at 158 ft. 1 3/4 in.

Whatever the East and Middle West produces in the way of opponents the Trojans will be ready to provide plenty of strenuous opposition, and at this writing it looks as if all three should be returned victorious.

Capt. Houser faces the battle of his eventful life in the shot, provided John Kuck and Hubert Schwartz are listed among those competing. It seems to be a foregone conclusion that Kuck will take part, while the entry of the latter is more or less doubtful, due to eligibility complications.

They play again Wednesday night as a result of the local winning.

The Los Angeles professional hockey team defeated the invading New York American ice hockey team, 5 to 3, last night in the last of the series of games between the two teams. This makes the series stand at three won for New York, two victories for the locals and one tie in the five-game series.

The locals took a lead of 2 to 1 in the opening period. Morris and Lawrence scored for the California men and Guichard, who had substituted for Burch, counted for the Rickard team.

Irving and Lawrence scored for Los Angeles in the second to make the score 4 to 1 before the Americans tallied again. Burch drove the puck in the cage unassisted and Guichard tallied in the same way, then Harris passed to Newell for another count for the locals ending the period at 5 to 1. Green drew a five-minute penalty for tripping.

The third period was uneventful as far as scoring was concerned, but both teams were playing roughly as they had been during the second period. This was partly responsible for the failure to score. The goal, Murray, for the locals, saved the day by his locals, saved the day by his

Ladies' night at the Mercury Thursday

Ladies' night, always a popular drawing card at the Los Angeles Athletic Club gym, is to bring out another record-breaking throng of spectators on Thursday night.

Harry Uytendhove, fencing instructor for the club, promises a sensation in the saber line. Men and women of national reputation are to perform. There will also be boxing and wrestling, with some acrobatic performances by champions who have carried off the honors several times in national affairs. A dance will follow the set program.

BOXERS GET SET

OAKLAND, April 19.—Jack Williams, the San Antonio cowboy, and Joe Roche, flashy San Francisco middleweight, went through fast workouts today for their ten-round bout at Oakland Auditorium Wednesday night.

OFF FOR THE DRAKE RELAYS TODAY

Leighton Dye, top left, Bud Houser, right, and Kenneth Grumbles, below, leave this morning for Des Moines, Iowa, where on Saturday they expect to show the natives of the Midwest what U.S.C. has to offer in the way of track champions. All three are intercollegiate champions of the U.S.A. and all are expected to bring home the bacon.

They play again Wednesday night as a result of the local winning.

The locals took a lead of 2 to 1 in the opening period. Morris and Lawrence scored for the California men and Guichard, who had substituted for Burch, counted for the Rickard team.

Irving and Lawrence scored for Los Angeles in the second to make the score 4 to 1 before the Americans tallied again. Burch drove the puck in the cage unassisted and Guichard tallied in the same way, then Harris passed to Newell for another count for the locals ending the period at 5 to 1. Green drew a five-minute penalty for tripping.

The third period was uneventful as far as scoring was concerned, but both teams were playing roughly as they had been during the second period. This was partly responsible for the failure to score. The goal, Murray, for the locals, saved the day by his

CABALLERO INVITATION SET TODAY

Record Field Expected to Qualify for Match Play Thursday

After three days of the hardest kind of golf in which he scored 88 to tie for third low gross in the 72-hole medal competition for the California State open title last week, Jack Tarrant, El Caballero professional, will rest today while the vanguard of a field expected to number more than 300 will open play in the annual club invitational tournament.

More than 100 are expected to qualify, 18 holes, today and as many more are expected to leave the first tee in the final qualifying round tomorrow. Match play in all flights will get under way Thursday, while finalists Sunday will share honors with a record field, fast signing to play in the two-ball mixed foursome tournament which will close the invitational Sunday.

In addition to the low gross and low net trophies offered in the qualifying play, winners and runners-up will receive suitable prizes, as will also the leader in all of the several defended eight wickets. There will be as many flights as brackets of sixteen, it was announced yesterday.

Both the invitational proper and the mixed foursome tournament is open to all members of the clubs affiliated with the S.C.G.A. Entries will be accepted at the tee or may be phoned to the club, Owensmouth 100. C. L. Myrick, Caballero manager, has planned a week of kitchen surprises that will tickle—and suffice the palate of the fast invitational field. A. H. Palmer, tournament official, will be in charge of the event.

MOTORCYCLISTS HOLD GIRARD HILL CLIMB

The Los Angeles Motorcycle Club is to stage an all-star hill climb at Girard Hill next Sunday, including four events for the novice, expert, expert and expert of sixty-one-inch and eighty-inch class and a free-for-all climb to end the program.

Prizes are to be awarded for first three places in each event.

CHAMPION RELATES STORY OF CAREER FOR "TIMES"

World-Famous Athlete Describes Experiences in Colorful Series Starting Next Thursday

Charles Hoff of Norway, world-record breaker in the indoor pole vault eleven times since February 4, five times world-record breaker in the outdoor pole vault and victor over America's world champions in all-around competition, will tell his own life story for readers of The Times and the North American Newspaper Alliance in a series of twenty-four articles beginning Thursday, this week.

Hoff, who four years ago first took a vaulting pole in his hands under protest, has not only lived the material for a story "stranger than fiction," but has written and illustrated parts of the text with his own sketches and cartoons. These will appear in The Times as the story of a young boy "who would not have been a good advertisement for a family doctor," but who became the world's greatest athlete at 23.

A young boy "filled with ailments and sickness," Hoff tells with naïveté and modesty of the instinct for competition which made him hand-stand on the fourth floor railing of the veranda if the other boys performed on the second. The doctor prescribed codliver oil and instead Hoff took six hours of running in the evening after school.

GREATEST OF ALL TIME He is positively the greatest all-round athlete that ever lived," Douglas Fairbanks wrote to Charlie Chaplin after watching the soaring Norwegian. Figures bear out this opinion. Hoff has not only set a world record in the vault and held for a time the record in the indoor broad jump but when he defeated Harold Osborn and Emerson Norton in the all-around championships in New York, March 16, he piled up 988 3-16 points in seven events of all-around competition.

Osborn's world record for ten events—an advantage of three events in which to make points—outdoors—1881 89-100 points. The New York World says that under similar conditions Hoff would have broken that record, by more than 1000 points—probably much more.

Jack Doyle Offers Three Ten-Round Bouts As Vernon Fistic Treat This Evening

CALLAHAN AND GOODRICH MIX

Local Star Meets Former Lightweight Champ

Fuente and Lester Johnson Exchange Svats

Gans and McGovern Open Up Evening's Show

Jack Doyle has been known to war against the world, but the veteran promoter is cutting loose tonight at the Vernon arena with a card that should cause more noise than the San Francisco quake and fire which took place twenty years ago last Saturday.

Not content with the normal one main event the veteran promoter is serving three ten-round bouts in the main event which is capable of standing for a single attraction.

Musky Callahan will go to the post against Jimmy Goodrich of Buffalo, recent holder of the lightweight championship.

Tony Fuente, a local star, will go to the post against Lester Johnson, who broke three of Jack Dempsey's ribs some nine years ago and who beat Captain Bob Hooper two weeks ago.

Baby Joe Gans, colored throwback of the Old Master, who has stopped seventeen of his last twenty opponents, takes Young McGovern, ranking lightweight of the South, to the stock market.

There isn't a clinch bet on the entire card, although the title of local boxing champion is in the hands of Baby Joe Gans and Tony Fuente are expected to knock out the rest of the card.

Callahan will leave immediately for New York, where he is to box Madison Square Garden May 7 against some lightweight, possibly Ed Terrell. And Musky Rocky Kansas a few months ago, yet if he were to fight Kansas again before the same crowd in Buffalo, he would be a favorite to win.

The battle with Goodrich three months ago, in which Callahan and he fought to a draw, was the last of his career. But Goodrich is no longer content with a draw. He is expected to win the lightweight title to Rocky Kansas a few months ago, yet if he were to fight Kansas again before the same crowd in Buffalo, he would be a favorite to win.

The Los Angeles newsmag may be champion of the world, but he returns home from his eastern trip.

Fuente is in excellent condition. He learned an excellent lesson in his fight with Lester Johnson. Against Huffmann Fuente made the serious mistake of trying to slug with the colored heavyweight to clinch and punch to the body, there may be tears shed in Little Mexico.

John Lester is no mark for any heavyweights and few will fight him under any circumstances. The negro is trained to the minute and if he can make Fuente fight his way he will win all the way.

Gans is expected to show fans more stuff than anyone on the card. Among the smaller clubs he has the name of being a knockout terror. He has been knocking out so many of his opponents that he is monotonous.

McGovern is coming up against the biggest threat on the program. But McGovern is a smart ring general. He has just come back from Cuba, where he expects to have his strongest fight and beat team in national history.

HE WHO LAUGHS LAST IS ENGLISH--

In the way some wise guy paraphrased the old line. In the case below we don't know whether Bill Richardson is English or not but he's certainly having the laugh on Elmer Boyden for a change. For two years the Stanford star has been forced to follow Boyden to the tape in the half-mile but last Saturday Richardson reversed the decision and as the accompanying photo shows got a big kick out of so doing. Boyden may be seen under Richardson's right arm, while Ransome Chase of California, third in the race, is running near the pole. The winner's time was 1m.53.8s., a new Pacific Coast record. World's record is 1m.52.2s. (P. & A. Photo)

PADDOCK RUNS SATURDAY WHITTIER LEGION TO HOLD BOUTS

World's Champion Leads Los Angeles Athletic Club Team Against Conference Stars at Pomona

POMONA COLLEGE, April 19.—Track fans of the Citrus Belt region will have their first opportunity Saturday afternoon of seeing Charley Paddock, world's champion sprinter, perform in their own back yard since 1920 when Paddock won two races here as a U.S.C. student. Then Paddock was competing in the annual spring A.A.U. meet and although he failed to equal the world's records he easily this year. Paddock did a little exhibition work on the Claremont oval last year but no matches were held and the "fastest human" confined his activities to starting and short sprints.

Saturday afternoon the Pasadena flyer will lead his Los Angeles Athletic Club team against the all-star southern conference aggregation in a high-powered dual meet on the Pomona oval. Twenty events will be held, including all regular A.A.U. events. The meet will be one of the best of the year and will easily be the finest yet held at Claremont in years. The Southern track will be in fine condition for the meet and Paddock will be given opportunity of smashing the sprint records.

Critics have pronounced the local oval to be one of the fastest in the country. It has been the scene of many record-breaking performances. Howard Drew, the fastest man in the world, set a 21-2-10 record here in 1914. This mark has since been surpassed by Paddock, who has traveled the distance in 20-8-10s. Last year Walt Christie, veteran California man, set a 20-8-10 record here. During the afternoon the 300 yards race will be the feature. It is expected that the champion will receive a substantial percentage of the receipts. Tunney, it is understood, will receive a flat fee of $10,000. The Los Angeles Athletic Club will receive the balance of the receipts. Tunney, it is understood, will receive a flat fee of $10,000. INVITATION AT LAKESIDE SOON

Annual Feature Will Draw Fine Amateur Field

First-Day Field Under Way Next Monday

Penfield Wins El Sereno Driving Contest

The fine test accorded scores of golfers in the El Caborero tourney this week will stand them in good stead for the equally fine test offered in the first annual invitation of the Lakeside Club, that will get under way with an 18-hole, four-day, four-man, flying round that may be played on Monday or Tuesday.

"Jim" Irfield, president of Lakeside, is heading an organization that has become a distinct credit to Southern California golf and like El Caborero, the course is distinctly individual and offers a variety of shots differing greatly from any course in the West.

Max Behr, Wilshire architect who designed the El Caborero, has built for himself a tee and greens memorial that will remain a lasting tribute to his golfing ability. The memorial is a small, round, white, concrete structure, about 10 feet in diameter, and is situated on the 18th green. It is a unique and beautiful structure, and it is a credit to Behr's architectural skill.

RABBIT PUNCHES

By PAUL LOWRY

MEMORIES of the Seattle Indians' spring training activities at Hermosa will be reflected at Wrigley Ball Park tomorrow afternoon, when the Northwesters and Hollywood tangle in the first of their seven-game series. Having taken the Indians to their boons during the training stage, the good folk of Hermosa have decided to see them through the season for better or for worse.

Consequently Wednesday will be a public holiday in Hermosa. According to many friends, Messrs. Harry Stuart and Bill Gaynor, all the stores, shops, offices and manufacturing establishments at the beach city will close. En masse the townfolk will turn out to welcome Red Killefer in the opening game with the Stars. J. H. Killefer, secretary of the Hermosa Beach Drive, is in charge of the arrangements and is preparing to put on quite a program. During their stay at Hermosa the Indians lived at the Surf and Sand Club.

From La Brea, on Clear Lake Beach, Cal., comes a communication from a publicist acquainted with the Indians. He has been reading about one Napoleon Dorval and writes to say that Jack Kearns must be full of imagination or something to write such clap-trap about a punk like Dorval. He says that Dorval is a former professional fighter and a former champion of the world. He is a very good fighter and a very good boxer. He is a very good fighter and a very good boxer. RADIO REDUCES ROSSA EARNINGS
Discloses Large Royalty Revenues
Before Congressional Patents Committee of $60,000 a Month
Cut to $25,500 Yearly

By Sidney Smith
The radio industry has been a source of much controversy since its inception. It has been accused of being a monopoly, of being a threat to the press, and of being a source of corruption. But now, the radio industry has been accused of being a source of large royalties. The Congressional Patents Committee has just disclosed that the royalties paid to the radio industry are as high as $60,000 a month. This is a large sum of money, and it has caused much controversy. The committee has decided to cut the royalties to $25,500 a year. This is a significant reduction, and it is hoped that it will help to bring the radio industry back to its proper perspective.

This is the first photo received in Los Angeles of the crash of the Detroit, Capt. Wilkin's three-engine monoplane, in which he will attempt to fly over the North Pole. CONSPIRACY CHARGED TO RAILROADS
Mine Union Leader Says Atterbury Heads Plot to Break Bituminous Industry

By A. P. Night Wire
WASHINGTON, April 19.—A railroad "conspiracy" headed by W. W. Atterbury, president of the Pennsylvania Railroad, is forcing the bituminous coal industry into bankruptcy, Philip Murray, vice-president of the United Mine Workers, charged today before the House Commerce Committee at a hearing on coal legislation. Opposing arbitration proposals for the industry, Mr. Murray assailed "any plan for government intrusion that would take from the miner his right of self-determination," and launched an attack against Mr. Atterbury.

Kentucky Girl Weds Before Eleventh Year
CYNTHIANA (Ky.) April 19.—Violet Jenkins, 11 years of age, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Jenkins of this county, disappeared from a children's home in another county a few years ago. She was found in a house near this city. It became known. A representative from the home went to take the child back, but was prevented from doing so by a marriage certificate showing that Violet had become the bride of Will Wilson, 16, of Fairmount, Ky., directly after she had left the home. The child, said to be the youngest person ever married in Kentucky, was accompanied to Fairmount by her mother, who gave her consent to the marriage. A necessary procedure for minors in Kentucky.

PHOENIX, April 19.—Thomas H. Bates of Prescott is the new Grand Chancellor of the Arizona Grand Lodge of Knights of Pythias, succeeding C. W. Clancy of Phoenix. John D. Lopez, Superintendent of Phoenix Schools, was elected for a twenty-sixth term as Grand Keeper of Records and Seal and was given high praise in a resolution spread on the Grand Lodge records. Indorsement was given a national Pythian movement seeking aid for the leper colony at Cullen, Philippine Islands, the subject presented by Capt. G. W. Sperry, U.S.A., now stationed at Douglas, a member of the Manila lodge of the order. The session was the forty-first of the Arizona Grand Lodge, which now is the center of twenty-eight subordinate lodges. The first session was at Tombstone, in 1884, and was attended by E. B. Mason, later a Grand Chancellor, now a resident of Los Angeles, whence he came to attend the session just held in Phoenix. Mrs. Belle Steele of Tempe was elected Grand Chief of the Arizona Grand Temple Pythian Sisters, which held its twenty-first session. Plans have been made for establishment of a home for aged members of the Pythian order, on a forty-acre tract already purchased.

BUILDING MAKES FLYERS DIZZY
Air Pilots Accustomed to Flying at Altitude of 10,000 Feet Confess to Qualms When Looking from Sixth Story of Cheyenne's Tallest Structure
[By A. P. Night Wire]

CHEYENNE, April 19.—Cheyenne's tallest building, a six-story structure, makes air-mail pilots who fly at an altitude of 10,000 feet, dizzy. Three of the eight birdmen of the air-mail field here confessed that they felt qualms when looking out of the sixth-story window of the building. But in the air they feel "at home" and have no attack of dizziness. "It is a different feeling to be in a plane thousands of feet

HUNT IRKED BY FEDERAL EMPLOYEES

Complains to Coolidge About 'Bureaucrats,' Urging State Cession of Lands

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
PHOENIX, April 19.—Abolition of bureaucratic interference with the State government is demanded by Gov. Hunt of Arizona in a letter addressed to President Coolidge and made public today. The letter refers in bitterness to Federal employees with duties impinging upon almost all public activities in Arizona and to "self-important graduates of a school of bureaucracy" who demand of sound prospects that they prove they are not crooks trying to rob the government when they apply for patents. The remedy, according to the Governor, is State cession of lands, the letter reciting: "You can render a great service to this nation, Mr. President, in urging that the intent of the father be fulfilled and the territory within the borders of the western States be ceded to them, to be administered by the States in the interest of the people within the States where the territory lies and to accomplish the completion of the establishment of the sovereign States."

Incidentally, the Governor advises the President that the Boulder Canyon project is a "crime against the State of Arizona and a violation of one of the most sacred and fundamental principles of our Constitution."

Stiff Defense Offered to Attack in Senate

Final Vote on Agreement Set for Tomorrow

Nye Urges Same Terms for American Farmer

IT IS A NIGHT WIRE

WASHINGTON, April 19.—The Italian debt settlement returned to the center of the Senate stage today and was subjected to an attack that met a stiff defense of the agreement and the American Debt Funding Commission.

With final vote set for late Wednesday, Senator Reed, Republican, Pennsylvania, declared that "we must refund this debt now and Italy must be permitted to balance its budget; or Italy will never be in a position to pay us anything," while Senator Walsh, Democrat, Montana, assailed the agreement and Mussolini. The recent speech of the Italian Premier in Trent, he declared, "bristles with belittling bluster."

In the midst of the spirited debate a concurrent resolution was offered by Senator Nye, Republican, North Dakota, providing that the United States settle on the terms contained in the Italian agreement with all its debtors, and particularly farmers, for indebtedness created by reason of the World War.

SENATE HALTS SHIP SALE

Unanimous Resolution Causes Signing of Dollar Deal to be Held Up Pending Inquiry

IT IS A NIGHT WIRE

WASHINGTON, April 19.—Sale of the American-Orient Mail Line to R. Stanley Dollar was held up today by a Senate resolution of protest.

Chairman O'Connor of the Shipping Board was preparing to sign the bill of sale when the resolution of Senator McNary recommending Dollar's bid of $4,500,000 be thrown out was passed unanimously. The chairman said he will withhold his signature until the Shipping Board has considered the resolution.

The resolution set forth that it was the sense of the Senate that the sale should be stopped, new bids called for, or ships allocated to persons interested in the Northwest.

The Shipping Board was charged with accepting the Dollar bid when it had a larger bid, but was refused to do so. Later Senator McNary said W. B. Keene, representative of the ship, had offered $100,000 more for the ships than Dollar, but that the board refused to consider the offer because it came in late.

The resolution would give the Dollar company a monopoly in the Pacific.

The Shipping Board has today ordered the signing of the contract be held up pending report by general counsel for the board on the legal status of the matter. The report is expected tomorrow.

The McNary resolution follows: "Whereas, the American-Orient Mail Line, consisting of five President-type Shipping Board vessels operated between Puget Sound and the Orient, representing an original cost in excess of $1,000,000 and constituting the American passenger cargo line in the Pacific Ocean north of San Francisco is proposed to be sold by the United States Shipping Board to Stanley Dollar for $4,500,000;

"Whereas, confirmation of the proposed sale to Mr. Dollar would place in the hands of one man, which has the bill under consideration, and who has described it as a 'stupendous deal,' the same interest in the sale of the ships as is now taken up again by the committee;

TOUR NO. 1 OF THE GREAT AVOCADO LANDS OF SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

These Frost-Protected Hills offer Safety and Profit and a wonderful Country Home.

AVOCADO LAND

The Big Producer

A country home surrounded by a number of acres in producing Avocados is about the most satisfactory thing a man can own in Southern California.

The Avocado returns a very splendid income and it is one of the longest lived revenue producers known. Records show trees 100 years old that are still bearing fine commercial fruit with no sign of let up. With proper care and selection an Avocado grove will begin to bear commercially in the 3rd year, and should produce an income of $500 per acre during the next 3 or 4 years.

After passing through this period and reaching maturity the grove should return, on a reasonable basis, estimated on about one-half the present wholesale price.

The demand for Avocados is steadily increasing. This is shown by the return for the month of January during the past three years—in January, 1924, the price was 25c per pound wholesale; in 1925 it was 50c per pound; while in January of this year Avocados brought 57c per pound. This was done in the face of a production that increased 42.5% in 1925 over 1924 was 21.5%.

Make a reservation today for a trip through these beautiful hills, and see the Avocado groves growing and MAKING MONEY.

OPTIONS ON COTTON OFF IN TRADING

Old Crop Months Down to New Low; Liverpool Break Aids Decline

NEW YORK, April 19.—The cotton market was under pressure of further liquidation and scattered southern selling from the opening today, due to the better weather conditions in the cotton belt over the week-end, and the further decline in Liverpool. Futures closed in Liverpool with a net decline of 20 of their points from Saturday's close for the old crop and 10 to 4 for the new, or twice as much as last week.

Prices here went off 15 points on May to 10 on July and October, and 6 to 4 on the latter months from Saturday's closing quotations before enough new trading developed to check the decline. May sold at 15.30, July 17.75, October 17.80; December 16.60, and January 16.50. These prices were new low levels on last season's crop.

Forecast for continued unseasonably cold weather, stimulated enough profit taking by shorts to rally the market about 10 points in the late afternoon. There was little new responsive buying, however, to this movement from either local trade or Wall-street, commission houses.

The season for new-crop preparations for planting generally in the belt is now two to three weeks late over most sections.

NEW YORK CURB STOCKS

(BY A. P. RICH) NEW YORK, April 19.—Further irregularity in price movement developed in today's curb market. Public interest was again at low ebb, with total sales barely exceeding 150,000 shares. Ford motors of Canada, dropped from 470 to 452 on announcement of a cut in price of cars in Canada to meet changed tariff conditions. But it snapped back later to 468 for a net gain of 8 points on the day. Other motors were irregular, Rickenbacker dropping to a new low level at $4 per share.

Renewed heaviness of electric refrigeration was attributed to the introduction by Senator Walsh of Montana, of a resolution in Congress suggesting an investigation of all mergers in the last four years. Goodyear Tire dropped over 2 points to 21, duplicating the year's low, on selling presumably inspired by the recent heaviness of the crude-rubber market.

Oil shares moved within narrow and irregular limits, with a few issues such as Ohio Oil, Standard Oil of New York, Lago "A" and Salt Creek Producers establishing new low levels for the year during the session. Public utilities held relatively steady, with moderate gains being recorded by American Gas and Electric, American Light and Traction and United Gas and Improvement.

To illustrate the fluctuating prices in the curb market, the following list of sales shows the range of prices for some of the leading issues:

Building Loans
Really owners who arrange their building loans through this Company enjoy the following advantages:

An increase in the capital stock of the Lucky Boy Divide Mining

China Gain as Boycott Widens

Extension of the Chinese boycott directed against British products from Canton to the cities of Swatow and Hongkong, which have been and is now threatening to engulf Shanghai, according to official advice received yesterday by Earl G. Gilmore, president of the Gilmore Oil Company.

News of the spread of the movement, which has deluged Southern California with Chinese goods, and a request for kerosene, came in a cable from the Shanghai offices of the American United Fruit and Tea Company, stating that the Canton government had just issued official orders to the effect that:

The boycott, established by the Company from $150,000 to $300,000 was authorized at a meeting of stockholders of the company last week, according to an announcement received yesterday by the Los Angeles Stock Exchange. The Chinese stockholder will now control 2,000,000 shares of 10-cent par-value stock.

The increase in capital was authorized to finance purchases of three claims in the adjacent district, adjoining the Western Lead Mines Company's holdings.

The Los Angeles Stock Exchange Company was incorporated under the laws of Nevada in March, 1919, and has a principal office sixteen miles from Blair Junction, Nev.

The stock has been active on the Los Angeles Stock Exchange since the first of the year, selling the monopoly bureau to regulate trading in this commodity on the south China market. Importation on certain sources was forbidden.

FUNERAL OF PIONEER SET TOMORROW

Traveler of Covered Wagon
Days to be Laid to Rest
Following Lying in State

Funeral services for the late Mrs. Isabella J. Norris, 82 years of age, wealthy pioneer resident of California since 1846, when she and her sister arrived here in a covered wagon of that early day, who died Saturday, last, will be conducted at 2 p.m. tomorrow from the home of her nephew, J. V.
Lehigh, of 208 South New Hampshire street. She had been ill for about two years.

On Friday, next, the body will be taken to Elsinore there to lie in state in the rooms of the Women's Club of which she was a prominent member and which she aided in establishing. The body will then be returned to Los Angeles for interment.

Mrs. Norris was born in Kansas and was brought westward by her parents when but a child. Her sister May, who also made the trip, died a year ago. She spent her early life in San Francisco, but lived here for the past thirty-five years, amassing considerable wealth from real estate investments. She at one time owned the property a part of which is now occupied by the Robinson department store, other property owned by her at one time was located on West Seventh street. Her husband, J. Norris, preceded her in death more than twenty years ago.

Besides the nephew at whose home funeral services will be conducted, Mrs. Norris leaves two brothers, D. F. Lehigh of this city, and James Lehigh of Elsinore.

Voted the kitchen's handiest pan

NO UTENSIL is used more than a sauce pan. And no sauce pan in a well-equipped kitchen is used for more purposes than this "Wear-Ever" 3-quart Straight Sauce Pan. We are particularly anxious for you to have one of these Sauce Pans because we know you will use it often and, therefore, will have more opportunities to observe the merits of "Wear-Ever" utensils.

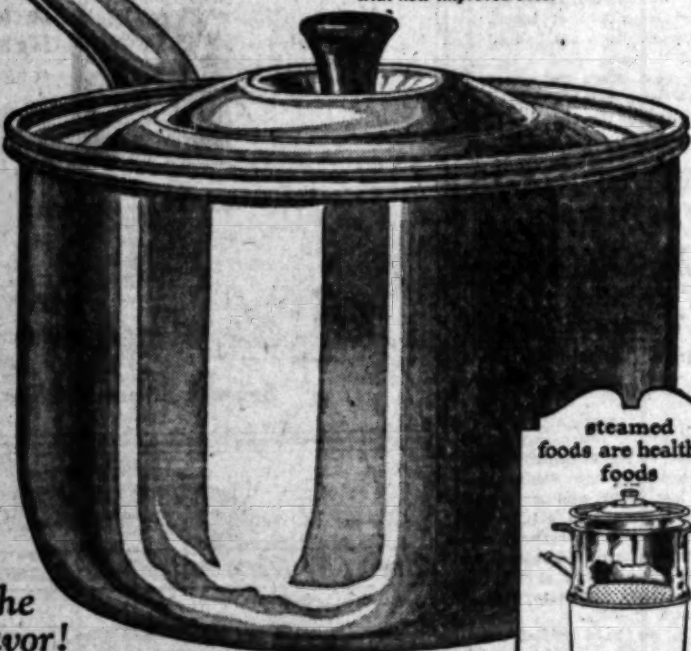

You will find that, due to the harder, thicker aluminum that is used, "Wear-Ever" utensils heat more evenly and insure better-cooked, better-flavored foods. You will find, too, that they are not easily dented and stand up better in hard service.

Get one of these "Wear-Ever" Sauce Pans today, and we know that you always will look for the "Wear-Ever" trade-mark on every utensil you buy.

An old room and antique furniture; yet what a pleasing transformation took place when a blue and gray Blabon floor of modernized Inlaid Linoleum (pattern 52) was laid.

Re-decorate your old room with Colorful Floors!

In the olden days, everybody loved color and used it freely. The ancient Egyptians, Romans, and Greeks enlivened their buildings with painted friezes, and filled them with painted furniture, frequently decorated in the most brilliant hues.

Color is the most effective and the least expensive of all modes of decoration. And its wise use today is transforming many a drab, barren room—with Blabon floors of Linoleum playing an important part.

The new Blabon Marble Tile Inlaid, the Dutch Tiles, and the soft two-toned Jasper effects make a wonderful foundation for a variety of harmonious color schemes. Besides adding greatly to the attractiveness of the home, Blabon floors are springy and comfortable to walk upon. Their smooth, crackless surface is so easy to keep clean! With an occasional waxing and polishing the original beauty of Blabon floors of Plain and Inlaid Linoleum is preserved indefinitely. There are many places in the home where Blabon's Printed Linoleum, even more moderate in price, may be used to advantage.

The modern method of cementing linoleum down over builders' deadening felt insures watertight seams which are practically invisible, and adds much to the beauty and permanency of a Blabon floor.

Ask for Blabon's Linoleum by name. It is sold by home-furnishing and department stores. Our illustrated booklet, "The Floor for the Modern Home," sent free, upon request.

BY CHEF A. L. WYMAN, M. C. A.

CHEESE CAKE

G. J. F. Eagle Rock. Dissolve one cake of yeast in half a cup of lukewarm milk and pour into a bowl; mix this with one cupful of sifted flour, one cupful of sugar and one-quarter of a teaspoon of salt; place in a warm place and let rise for two hours.

When the mixture is well risen beat to a cream three-quarters of a cup of butter and one cup of sugar; beat in three well-beaten eggs and mix to a smooth dough with five cups of sifted flour, one cup of milk and the yeast mixture. Work well with a spoon for ten minutes and let rise until light, about four hours.

Rub one and a half cups of dry cottage cheese through a sieve and mix smooth with four tablespoons of creamed butter; beat into these slowly half a cupful of sugar, the well-beaten yolks of three eggs, one-quarter of a teaspoon of salt, one teaspoonful of grated lemon rind, and two-thirds of a cupful of seedless raisins. Butter a deep baking dish heavily, roll out the dough in a thin sheet and line the baking dish with it; let rise fifteen minutes. Add the stiffly beaten whites of three eggs to the cheese mixture, pour into the dough-lined pan and bake until firm in the center.

FRENCH DOUGHNUTS

Place in a double boiler half a cupful of butter and one and a half cupfuls of milk; cook until the butter is melted, then stir in very quickly two cupfuls of sifted flour and stir on the fire until well mixed. Beat in the yolks of four eggs, and beat until a paste thick enough to pass through a star tube is obtained. Place the mixture in a pastry bag that has a star tube and drag rings with the mixture on pieces of greased paper. Drop paper and rings in hot fat until the paste leaves the paper. Remove the paper and finish frying. When done, drain and dip one side in soft, orange-flavored frosting.

FROSTING FOR FRENCH PASTRY

C. D. R. Los Angeles. Beat to a cream six tablespoons of butter and beat into it slowly one cupful of XXXX sugar; sift one cupful of XXXX sugar with four tablespoons of cocoa and beat into the first mixture with three tablespoons of coffee and one teaspoonful of vanilla.

WHIPPING CREAM

By adding the white of one egg you can make your cream fine and light.

COOKED MAYONNAISE

Mix the yolks of three well-beaten eggs with one tablespoonful of olive oil, one tablespoonful of sugar, two tablespoons of salt and two tablespoons of mustard. Mix well and beat in half a cupful of vinegar and one cupful of light cream. Place in a double boiler and stir until thick and smooth, like custard.

FILET OF SOLE, MARGUERITE

A. F. Los Angeles. Season four filets of sole with salt and cayenne pepper, place them in a buttered saute pan, pour over four tablespoons of white wine or white grape juice, and a few drops of lemon juice, cover the fish with a piece of buttered manila paper, place in the oven and bake six minutes. Remove the fish to a buttered silver platter and on each fillet place six poached mushrooms and one head of canned mushroom. Add to the liquor left in the pan one tablespoonful of white wine sauce and bring to a boil, stir in slowly the beaten yolks of two eggs and four tablespoons of butter, stir until the butter is melted, do not boil, and strain over the filets; sprinkle over all grated bread crumbs and bake lightly brown in a very hot oven. White wine sauce that can be used for this dish can be had at any good grocer's.

SPAGHETTI MEXICAN

W. L. H. Los Angeles. Cook one small package of spaghetti in boiling salted water until tender; place in a colander and drain well. Place in a saucepan three tablespoons of olive oil, heat and add two chopped onions, one chopped sweet pepper and one mashed clove of garlic; cook until the onion is soft, then add one cupful of chopped round steak and cook until the meat is lightly browned; add one cupful of chopped tomatoes, one tablespoonful of chili powder, one tablespoonful of vinegar, and a seasoning of salt. Simmer for fifteen minutes, add the cooked spaghetti and heat. Place on a platter, sprinkle with grated cheese and set in the oven until the cheese is melted.

GRIDDLE CAKES

R. E. H. Los Angeles. Sift into a bowl two cupfuls of sifted white flour, sifted with four level teaspoons of baking powder, two-thirds of a teaspoonful of salt and two teaspoonsful of sugar; add two well-beaten eggs and three-quarters of a cupful of milk and beat smooth; add slowly three-quarters of a cupful of milk and two tablespoons of melted butter and beat well with a wire egg beater until light and smooth. Drop from a mixing spoon onto a hot well-greased griddle and when the top is full of bubbles and the edges are browned, turn and brown on the other side.

APPLE MARMALADE

E. J. Los Angeles. Peel, core and cut in small pieces, weigh and to every pound of apples allow one pound or two cupfuls of sugar; place the sugar in a sauce pan with half a cupful of water to each two cupfuls and stir and cook until thick; add the apples and cook until tender; press through a colander and to every two pounds add the grated rind and juice of one lemon; boil until thick and pack in clean glasses, when cold seal and store in a cool, dark place. Prominent Individuals, Civic and Fraternal Groups Indorse Increase

With the special election of the 10th inst. less than two weeks away, the police pay increase by the city council is being received at headquarters of the movement, Gross Building, signed by prominent civic and professional figures of Los Angeles. Civic and fraternal organizations have gone on record as definitely backing the proposed measure.

Among prominent individuals favoring the increase are Judge Houser, District Court of Appeals; Judges Ambrose, Turner, Richardson and Ballard of the Municipal courts; William S. Hart, C. C. Julian, Rabbi Margolin of the Temple Beth El, Samuel Kress, president of the Kress Drug Company; C. H. Vanderlip, Commercial National Trust and Savings Company; J. M. Friedlander, City Prosecutor; Georgia F. Bullock of the Municipal Court; Bert Lotell and Lieut.-Col. C. R. Bort, divisional commander of the Salvation Army.

Several labor organizations, civic and service associations and fraternal organizations also are indorsing the measure.

WOMAN TO ANSWER CHARGE OF FRAUDS

Accused of obtaining goods from a local department store by fake charge accounts, Olive Shockley was held to answer yesterday by Municipal Judge Ambrose. There were five specific charges, but store detectives asserted about 100 purchases had been made by her under fictitious names. The purchases ranged from $1.50 to $12.50.

SCHWABE ASKS FOR NEW PORT

Inclusion of San Luis Obispo and Kern Counties in Local District Sought

Recommendations that the United States customs district be extended to include the rich grain and oil port of San Luis Obispo, now in the Northern California division, will be forwarded immediately to Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Andrews by Collector of Customs Schwabe for the southern district of California.

Should Collector Schwabe's plans be accepted the Los Angeles office customs revenue will be increased thousands of dollars yearly, according to Collector Schwabe.

"San Luis Obispo is nearer Los Angeles than it is to San Francisco," Collector Schwabe said yesterday, "and it can be much better assisted in development because of the proximity."

"My proposal calls for the inclusion of San Luis Obispo and Kern counties, the bulk of which is now in the San Francisco district. The reorganization plan is simply along lines of the already established internal revenue district."

Food Authorities Endorse this new process nut margarine

Oils before they are pressed from nuts are in an emulsified state. Nature has broken them up into millions of tiny globules. In this form they are most easily digested. An exclusive and secret process which re-emulsifies wholesome coconut and peanut oils, with milk solids is used to make Standard Nut. So, like nuts, it is very digestible and nutritious. Food authorities endorse it.

This exclusive process also makes Standard Nut smoother, firmer, and sweeter. No other margarine can be like it. Because its nut oils do not separate from the milk solids, even when warm, Standard Nut is unequalled as a table spread and for finest baking and cooking. Let us send you money-saving recipes free. LONG TERM FOR DRIVER OF AUTO

Hit-and-Run Autoist Sent to Jail and Fined $4000

Judge Burnell Flays Man as "Drunken Idiot"

Severe Justice to be Meted Out in Such Cases

Characterizing Louis M. Lehman as "a drunken idiot," Judge Burnell yesterday sentenced him to from one to five years in San Quentin and imposed a fine of $4000, which he called the "steepest and steepest" ever levied on a driver of an automobile after striking three aged people with his automobile. Judge Burnell said he would recommend to the prison board that Lehman should serve at least four years of his sentence. "I realize that one man alone cannot stop this sort of thing," Judge Burnell said in sentencing Lehman, "but as far as one man can do it I am going to send out a message to the world that every one of these debauched idiots who drives on the public highways at the wheel of a modern juggernaut and kills or injures defenseless people is going to receive the severest punishment it is in my power to give or to recommend."

Lehman was arrested at the point where it is almost impossible for a person who desires to drive in a safe and sane manner, or a pedestrian who desires to cross the street, to do so without at least a constant fear and the ever-present possibility of some drunken idiot such as this man causing a terrible calamity. These so-called accidents are not accidents; they are crimes."

Lehman was arrested on February 27, last, at Sunset Boulevard and Oliver Lane avenues. His machine struck Fred Winter, 71 years of age, his deaf mute sister, Frieda, 48, and Nina Winter's nurse, Lydia Brown, 54. The last named was so seriously injured it is said she will be crippled for life. All three live at Winter's home, 1415 Elm street.

ELECT POMONA MAN TO PLANNING BOARD

J. M. Paige of Pomona was elected to the Los Angeles County Planning Commission by the Board of Supervisors yesterday to fill the vacancy caused by the expiration of the term of George Damon last January. Mr. Paige has been secretary of the Pomona Chamber of Commerce for several years. He was formerly Park Commissioner of this city, in which capacity he was credited with establishment of Ganesha Park.

BROUGHER TENDERED FAREWELL

Departing Baptist Pastor Given Wishes for Happy Future at Luncheon

Expressions of regret at the departure of Rev. J. Whitcomb Brougner and wishes for a happy future were voiced at a farewell luncheon for him yesterday given by the ministers of the Southern California Baptist Conference.

The luncheon was presided over by Mrs. Gussie Fichtenwald, wife of Miller, whose real name she said was Herman Fichtenwald. The complaint stated Miller had deserted his wife about six years ago. Filing of the complaint came to break the monotony of the cross-examination to which Miller has been subjected by Schwartz's attorneys for four days. Miller was indicted with Schwartz for the alleged bribery of Austin C. Doan, a juror at Schwartz's first trial on a charge of violating the Corporate Securities Act. He was granted a separate trial, however, and then appeared as the principal witness in the prosecution of Schwartz. Hearing on the petition for probation of Doan, who pleaded guilty to a charge of accepting a bribe, was continued yesterday by Judge McLucas to May 2.

Jury Completed to Try Reid for Yuletide Killing

A jury was sworn in late yesterday in Judge Hardy's court to hear the testimony in the trial of Frank Reid, charged with murder in connection with the shooting last Christmas Day of Charles Thorpe, following his party. Reid also is charged with assault with intent to murder his wife, Catherine Reid. According to Milton M. Golden and A. V. Kaufman, attorneys for Reid, an attempt will be made to prove that Reid shot Thorpe with the latter's gun in self-defense, following an altercation. It is the contention of the defense that Reid was struck by a stray bullet. The case is being prosecuted by Deputy District Attorney Dennison and Kennedy.

SERVICES CONDUCTED FOR NANCIE G. DURHAM

Funeral services were conducted yesterday for Nancie G. Durham, wife of Judge S. Durham of the Cotton Lumber Company, who died Friday at the Hollywood Hospital after a brief illness. Mrs. Durham was well known in Pasadena, residing at 4533 Pasadena avenue, and was owner of the Lone Pine service station on Pasadena avenue. Services were conducted at the Little Church of the Flowers and interment was in the mausoleum at Pierce Brothers' mortuary. Funeral arrangements were in charge of Pierce Brothers.

CALIFORNIA PIONEER'S FUNERAL TOMORROW

Funeral arrangements were completed yesterday for Isabella Norris, 81 years of age, who came to California in 1845. Private services will be conducted at the home of her nephew, J. V. Lehigh, 208 South New Hampshire street, tomorrow. The body will be taken to Elsinore for services and interment will be in the mausoleum at Riverside. The body will lie in state at Pierce Brothers' mortuary tomorrow.

PAIR ARRAIGNED IN SHERIFF'S VAULT RAID

Harry Adler and Karl Wallich, accused of having robbed the vault in Sheriff Truett's office last week of $1182, were arraigned before Municipal Judge Ballard yesterday. Adler waived preliminary examination and declared on the stand he had hidden in the vault, took the money "as a joke" and split it with Wallich, a deputy sheriff. The latter's hearing was set for the 22nd inst.

PAIR CHARGED WITH THEFT OF DIAMOND

Julia Wierand and Dallas Van Cleave were held to answer yesterday by Municipal Judge Ballard, charged with stealing a $485 diamond pin from J. W. Overton, a musician at the Metropolitan Theater. It was declared Overton accompanied the pair to a bungalow court managed by the woman, and missed his pin when he left. The pin was found in the court, police asserted.

WITNESS IN BRIBE CASE IN CUSTODY

Herman Miller, Testifying for State at Schwartz Trial, Accused as Child Deserter

Herman Miller, star witness for the State in the prosecution of Bernard Schwartz, broker, on charges of bribery and attempt to influence a juror, was confronted with a complaint charging him with failure to provide for his 6-year-old son, Irving, while he was on the witness stand yesterday in Judge McLucas's court.

The complaint was preferred by Mrs. Gussie Fichtenwald, wife of Miller, whose real name she said was Herman Fichtenwald. The complaint stated Miller had deserted his wife about six years ago. Filing of the complaint came to break the monotony of the cross-examination to which Miller has been subjected by Schwartz's attorneys for four days. WALTER F. MENTIRE DIES

Attorney, Author and Orator Succumbs Following Stroke While Sitting in Office

Suffering a stroke of apoplexy while at his office, Walter F. Mentire, local attorney, author and orator, died yesterday afternoon at the Rescuing Hospital where heroic efforts by Police Surgeon Savarin to have his life were unavailing. Mr. Mentire, who was 60 years of age, came to Los Angeles twelve years ago from St. Louis, where he was for years a member of the Board of Education and where he was prominent in legal and civic circles. He also was the author of several books, one of which was published under the title of "Was Columbus a Jew." This work caused considerable furor at the time of its publication, but gained wide circulation. In the twelve years he had resided in Los Angeles, Mr. Mentire became well known in his profession and was prominent in the work of the Knights of Columbus, of which organization he was a member. He also was a member of the Jonathan Club, where he

Kiss Block or Two Long, All Same in Court

Judge Gates didn't care much whether Orin Wesley Moxley kissed the other girl one block or two blocks.

"Even a kiss one block long is sufficient cause of action in this court," he declared, after he had heard conflicting evidence about the matter. Mrs. Ruth Edna Moxley, who wanted a divorce, said the kiss lasted but one block. But a witness who professed to have seen the kiss, questioned by Judge Gates, judicially opined that it lasted "a block or so; yes, a couple of blocks."

"Evidently a thorough, satisfactory demonstration, anyway," Judge Gates observed. It happened in an automobile in which Moxley and the other girl were riding, it was testified. Mrs. Moxley and her witness said they were following in another car and watched the proceedings. Judge Gates gave her a divorce.

HARRIET HOOVER MAKES BIG HIT AT ORPHEUM

By Grace Kingsley

That alpine acolyte of aboriginal music, Ted Lewis, still holds down the title of headliner at the Orpheum, but we must bid him a tearful farewell at the end of the week.

A bright, busy little bill around Lewis likewise backs topnotches for itself.

We haven't seen that glorious child, Harriet Hoover, since "Topsy and Eva" stepped out on us and went to New York, but Harriet comes back top-heavy with laurels from that engagement and succeeding ones. She took the town by storm.

Scarcely 18 now, Harriet is a dancing wonder. She has taken on tons of technique, hasn't dropped one grain of grace, naturalness and easy flexibility. If this girl is handled right, she is going to strain Pavlova's record. Her dances are all original, too, but what held us spellbound most of all was of course, her classic toe dancing.

The dancers and toe dancers we have, but when a lot of these have finished their stunts we think, what if it But here's one who holds you by her girlish loveliness and fresh personality in addition to her very fine technique. William Holbrook, Miss Hoover's partner, is worth a look. He does a number of solo dances, principally buck and wing, jigging and that sort, is nimble, and has a most pleasing personality. Too bad these two don't do a little more in their stepping, it seems to me.

A revue of artists is what Benny Rubin offers, funny little one-act comedies, with the "Chase Morris" burlesque the best bit and very scummy. Benny and May Cohen and their company are good. He does a number of solo dances, principally buck and wing, jigging and that sort, is nimble, and has a most pleasing personality. Too bad these two don't do a little more in their stepping, it seems to me.

A couple of wop simps character musicians, long on comedy and harmony both, are Boyle and Della, with one working from the audience at first, but popping in on the sixth reel.

Singing the fluffies about regarding and fresh as mountain air, Homer B. Mason grabbed the giggle in "A Hero," with Marguerite Kender as first aid. A hero is all right once in a while, but not as a steady three-day twin-beds companion, is the theme.

They push them and pull them, but principally they pull them in "Push 'Em and Pull 'Em." Harris and Holley's act is a comedy obligato, and do some peppy hoofing.

Sowing up the curtain are the Four Flying Valentines, who do hand-casting and bar-turning experts, neat and nicely rounded.

"The Act Beautiful" is. Grouped in status-like quiet and whiteness, a series of scenes unravels a drama of the hunt, with humans, horse and dogs maintaining amazing stillness.

Universal's Heavy Comedy End

Universal is to be heavy for comedy during the next twelve months, according to the announcement of President Carl Laemmle. Fifty-two one-reel pictures during the next year is the schedule announced.

Scott Darling is to supervise the making of these pictures, and he has already engaged a big staff of directors and gag-men.

Arthur Lake, Charles Puffy, Neely Edwards, Slim Summerville and the others are to be in the picture, and the picture will continue to page the laughs.

William Holbrook, Miss Hoover's partner, is worth a look. He does a number of solo dances, principally buck and wing, jigging and that sort, is nimble, and has a most pleasing personality. Too bad these two don't do a little more in their stepping, it seems to me.

A couple of wop simps character musicians, long on comedy and harmony both, are Boyle and Della, with one working from the audience at first, but popping in on the sixth reel.

Singing the fluffies about regarding and fresh as mountain air, Homer B. Mason grabbed the giggle in "A Hero," with Marguerite Kender as first aid. A hero is all right once in a while, but not as a steady three-day twin-beds companion, is the theme.

They push them and pull them, but principally they pull them in "Push 'Em and Pull 'Em." Harris and Holley's act is a comedy obligato, and do some peppy hoofing.

Sowing up the curtain are the Four Flying Valentines, who do hand-casting and bar-turning experts, neat and nicely rounded.

"The Act Beautiful" is. Grouped in status-like quiet and whiteness, a series of scenes unravels a drama of the hunt, with humans, horse and dogs maintaining amazing stillness.

Universal's Heavy Comedy End

Universal is to be heavy for comedy during the next twelve months, according to the announcement of President Carl Laemmle. Fifty-two one-reel pictures during the next year is the schedule announced.

Scott Darling is to supervise the making of these pictures, and he has already engaged a big staff of directors and gag-men.

Arthur Lake, Charles Puffy, Neely Edwards, Slim Summerville and the others are to be in the picture, and the picture will continue to page the laughs.

BARBARA LA MARR

FILM IS MAGNET

Hillstreet Packed With "Tans"

By Grace Kingsley

Admired of Barbara La Marr of beloved memory, packed the house at yesterday's matinee premiere of "The Girl from Montmartre," the actress' last picture, showing this week at the Hillstreet Theater.

In this film, adapted from Anthony Pryde's "Spanish Sunlight," Barbara La Marr, emphatically turns from the alien roles in which she gained such wide fame and appears instead as a Spanish peasant girl, quaintly costumed, a bit saucy.

Technically "The Girl from Montmartre" has many comedy sequences, though dramatic scenes are interspersed at regular intervals. However, in her new role, the actress is her old flaming self—vital and compelling, despite her evident illness. She is supported in this First National Picture by an excellent cast, headed by the suave Lewis Stone, and including a most likable youth, William Eugene, who gives an engaging portrayal as the young brother.

In addition to the film, which easily takes first honors on the program, the Hillstreet bill boasts three headliners: "Tramp, Tramp, Tramp," with Jack Cameron and company; Frank Davis and Adele Darnell in "Birdseed," and William Sully and Genevieve Houghton in "Arms and the Girl" are offered.

What more, in the way of variety, could any reasonable audience demand?

The "song of the road," otherwise "Tramp, Tramp, Tramp," is an enjoyable conglomeration of the type to be expected under such a title.

"Birdseed," though neither original nor exceptionally clever, pleased the audience tremendously. It must be admitted that Frank Davis has a positive talent for fast speaking, combined with clear enunciation. However—

"Arms and the Girl" flopped, though by Sully and Houghton, was the usual flimsy affair, as regards plot, though the lines are laughable, and little Miss Houghton has a voice above the average player of such roles.

Tabor and Green, presumably gentlemen, play down South, added consistently to the joy of the afternoon—in a casual, solemn manner. When they stopped fooling, both showed themselves talented musicians.

The Aurora Troupe opened the show. Though their act is not well staged and no original costume effects are attempted, these cyclists are capable of several original stunts.

PASADENA, April 19.—Here today at the Hotel Huntington a series of addresses and a session of the annual meeting of the California High School Principals' Association.

The present state law against fraternities is in effect because it affords no means of punishing the older members of the fraternities, the alumni support them and are largely influential in their maintenance.

Round-up Begun of Suspects in Store Robbery

Police detectives from the Wilshire division yesterday began rounding up underworld suspects for questioning in connection with the early morning robbery of the Piggy Wiggy store at 2111 West Washington street. The store safe was broken open and $1040 taken, according to J. Jettis, manager.

The burglars broke into a blacksmith shop near the store, obtained tools and pried open a store window. Investigation by Detective Lieutenants Noregaard and Ried-dard showed the safe combination had been shattered, apparently with a sledge.

Bandits Waylay and Rob Widow of Her Savings

Two men waylaid Mrs. Bridget Hughes, a widow, 65 years of age, and tore her fur coat into fragments to get at $105.85, all her savings, she reported to harbor division police last night.

Mrs. Hughes said she had been visiting a sick friend and was returning to her home at 679 Twelfth street, San Pedro, when the men seized her and dragged her into an alley. They seemed to know she had the money on her person, and the pocket where she carried it, she said.

In their haste they almost tore her outer clothing from her body, she said.

NICEE MEDICINE NOT RUM A-TALL

City Chemists Baffled by Concoction Taken From Chinese House

Quan Sing, Chinese herb specialist, was found not guilty of possessing liquor in Municipal Judge Turney's court yesterday, when it became known that all the experts in the City Chemist's office had been unable to analyze one of Quan's mixtures.

Police officers declared it was "boose," Quan blandly insisted. It was "nicee medicine, good for loom-tum, lame back, him got sore throat and lots things." The City Chemist's report showed Quan's medicine contained 25 per cent alcohol, but stated complete inability to analyze the other ingredients.

Such organizations as debating clubs, athletic clubs, scholastic literary and scientific societies, dramatic clubs and glee clubs were also discussed.

ANTI-AIRCRAFT PRACTICE FIRED

Battleships Scattered All Over Channel

U.S.S. Maryland Sails for Annual Overhaul

Flying Squadrons Tune Up for Maneuvers

Battleships were scattered all over Catalina Channel yesterday, while squadrons of torpedo and observation planes dived overhead in a wide range of gunnery exercises.

The U.S.S. Maryland sailed at noon for the Puget Sound Navy Yard to undergo her annual overhaul and will be gone until September. The Maryland will present a different appearance when she returns, as she is to receive eight new five-inch anti-aircraft guns, a new turret launching catapult and several new fire-control stations.

The U.S.S. Mississippi, U.S.S. West Virginia, U.S.S. Oklahoma and U.S.S. New Mexico fired anti-aircraft practice a short distance off the port. The U.S.S. Seattle, United States Fleet flagship, also conducted practice runs for gunnery practice in the channel, while far offshore the U.S.S. California, battleship, and the U.S.S. Nevada, will fire anti-aircraft practice and the New Mexico, Idaho and Mississippi will fire spotting practice.

Today the West Virginia, Colorado, California and Nevada, will fire anti-aircraft practice and the New Mexico, Idaho and Mississippi will fire spotting practice.

ROADS LOSE IN FREIGHT CAR RULING

Federal Judge Holds That Courts Have Jurisdiction in Shortage Actions

Car shortage actions against railroads are subject to court jurisdiction, United States District Judge McCormick held yesterday in a memorandum opinion rendered on a demurrer and motion for bill of particulars brought by counsel for the Santa Fe and Southern Pacific railroads in suits filed against them by three California shippers of green fruits.

The railroad argued that by reason of the Transportation Act of 1920 and recent railroad legislation by Congress, the Interstate Commerce Commission, instead of the courts, should take jurisdiction in such actions.

Nearly a score of suits involving several million dollars are affected by Judge McCormick's decision. The railroads, as a test action, made their argument in connection with four of these pending suits. Two of these, which were later joined, were brought by Martin Seriman, under the firm name of Valley Growers and Distributors, against the Southern Pacific, and by J. T. Taylor, against the Santa Fe.

The suits charge failure to supply refrigerator cars. Most of the actions were brought by Fresno shippers.

The men of the fireboat dried out their quaking guest and piled him with hot coffee and blankets. And then the fire went out, and they beat it away on the Los Angeles City No. 2.

When they returned their guest was gone. So was about $200 in cash and numerous watches and other valuables, pilched by the ungrateful, unregenerate guest from the firemen's civility. And Walter Kramer's remark that they would have lost more if the thief had waited until the firemen received a salary increase was mighty small consolation.

STONEHOUSE REINDICTED IN TAX CASE

Jury Votes Second True Bill Against President of Barnes Company

Alphasm George Barnes Stonehouse, president of the A. G. Barnes Amusement Company and founder of Barnes City, yesterday was reindicted by the United States grand jury on charges of making false income reports on the income of his company and himself.

The jury met secretly while a battle was raging before United States District Judge James on old indictments charging the same offense and the grand jury action was simply to forestall the court finding error in the original true bills and admitting the demurrer introduced by half a dozen defense attorneys.

Stonehouse immediately qualified on bonds of $1000 each on the two indictments. The case was set over for arraignment in two weeks. The amusement man is being sued for $208,000, the principal, penalty and interest on the asserted amount due.

Representative Frear tells a story about Bill, a milkman: "One morning," says Frear, "Bill's driver broke down and Bill was buried in the wreckage. "His sister Jane, when she summoned the doctor, burst into angry sobs. "Would you believe it, doctor," she sobbed. "Bill lay under all them milk cans and wheels and things shoutin' and yellin' for help for an hour and a half and not a soul in the whole street had heart enough to get out and lend him a hand. Why, we could hear him a block away."

"If you heard him, Jane," said the doctor, "why didn't you go out?" "How," sobbed Jane, "how was we to know it was our Bill?" [Chicago News.]

Representative Frear tells a story about Bill, a milkman: "One morning," says Frear, "Bill's driver broke down and Bill was buried in the wreckage. "His sister Jane, when she summoned the doctor, burst into angry sobs. "Would you believe it, doctor," she sobbed. "Bill lay under all them milk cans and wheels and things shoutin' and yellin' for help for an hour and a half and not a soul in the whole street had heart enough to get out and lend him a hand. Why, we could hear him a block away."

"If you heard him, Jane," said the doctor, "why didn't you go out?" "How," sobbed Jane, "how was we to know it was our Bill?" [Chicago News.]

STONEHOUSE REINDICTED IN TAX CASE

Jury Votes Second True Bill Against President of Barnes Company

Alphasm George Barnes Stonehouse, president of the A. G. Barnes Amusement Company and founder of Barnes City, yesterday was reindicted by the United States grand jury on charges of making false income reports on the income of his company and himself.

The jury met secretly while a battle was raging before United States District Judge James on old indictments charging the same offense and the grand jury action was simply to forestall the court finding error in the original true bills and admitting the demurrer introduced by half a dozen defense attorneys.

Stonehouse immediately qualified on bonds of $1000 each on the two indictments. The case was set over for arraignment in two weeks. The amusement man is being sued for $208,000, the principal, penalty and interest on the asserted amount due.

AMERICA HEARD

Great SuccessEntertainment Sent from Station 2XAF

BY PAUL SHEEDY
Grant Dalton, an enterprising South African experimenter, and 2XAF station have demonstrated that it is possible to schedule a 8050-mile radio relay and make good on the program.

The annual agricultural show of the South African Union was held in Johannesburg recently and the show management believed that it would be a fitting climax to the week to give the visitors an opportunity to hear a radio program from the United States. A definite time was set for the week to give the visitors an opportunity to hear a radio program from the United States. A definite time was set for the week to give the visitors an opportunity to hear a radio program from the United States.

HEARD IN AUSTRALIA
South Africa reported by cable that the relay was a great success and then a few hours later, a message from E. H. Cox of Eastonwick, Victoria, Australia, to the effect that he had heard the whole program of 2XAF, as late as 7 o'clock, Sunday morning, the 4th inst. Johannesburg got the program at about midnight.

The South Africans, called, "Much obliged for your co-operation. Special program relayed Sunday was a great success. Express our thanks to participants. South African agriculturists reciprocate wishes. Transmitting your Sunday-morning dinner music."

The Australian, Mr. Cox (SND) reported as follows: "Your concert to South Africa heard here 6 p.m. eastern standard, the 3rd inst. Heard very loud here three hours after sunrise. Signal would travel outward from you so distance would be 14,000 miles. Congratulations. Do you ever use thirty-two-meter phone about 4 a.m. eastern standard time? Heard phone at late as 7 a.m. and carrier came through as late as 8 a.m."

STATION EQUIPMENT
2XAF is a little brother of the city-kilowatt transmitter of WGY. It is one of six radio transmitters on the fifty-four-acre radio laboratory of the General Electric Company, all of them supplied from a central power house. The station equipment is housed in a small one-story building, approximately twenty-five feet square. The wire that forms the aerial is only fifty feet long and about the diameter of a lead pencil. The energy is supplied to the antenna in the form of a very high frequency alternating current. The current reverses its direction of flow 15,350,000

Lumber Man Urges "Yes"
Vote on Harbor Proposal
at Coming Election

"The ship carrying the trade of the Far East, tantamount in the next century to that now of the Atlantic, will seek a broad and open harbor such as the new breakwater will give us to the south of Terminal Island."

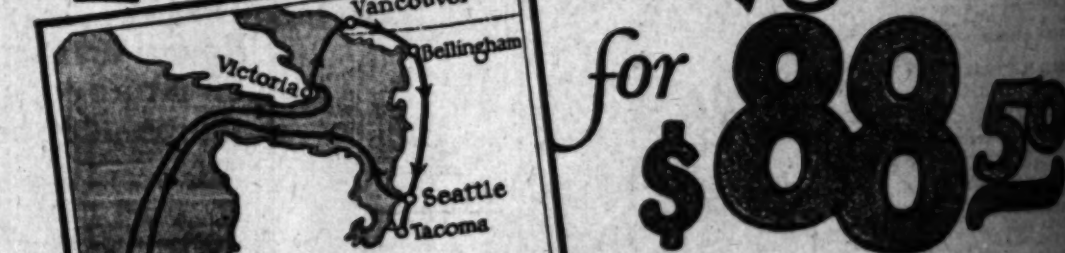

This was one of the arguments made yesterday by G. C. Gearhart, president of the Foreign Trade Club of Southern California, urging voters to cast a heavy "yes" vote for Proposition 6 on the ballot the 30th inst. As manager of the hardwood department of the Hammond Lumber Company Mr. Gearhart has long been closely familiar with the growth and development of Los Angeles Harbor.

"Our ports of the Pacific today lie in the same position," explained Mr. Gearhart, "as the great future commerce of Asia and the Far East that the ports of the Atlantic seaboard faced in European commerce a century ago. The Pacific Coast port that can today best vision the trade that is to come out of the Far East and prepare to handle it, will unquestionably become the foremost harbor on our coast."

"The Foreign Trade Club, at a recent meeting, gave the principle of the port district its unanimous approval and urged its members to assist in bringing out a full affirmative vote. The government has made as a requirement that the two harbors shall be consolidated politically before any federal money, amounting to $7,000,000, can be available in the construction of the great outer breakwater."

"WILD NIGHT" LETTER
WINS WIFE DIVORCE

"How are you today after our wild night?" inquired one who signed herself "Yours forever, Ma-bie," in a letter addressed to Wesley J. Bonfield, which Mrs. Edna Forsey, Bonfield's wife, brought to Judge Gates' court yesterday. "I found it in his pocket," Mrs. Bonfield explained. Judge Gates gave her a divorce.

“ELEPHANTS’ HIGHWAY
 “But our most thrilling experience was an encounter with a herd of elephants. I had gone into the jungle and found a well-beaten path. Suddenly my natives, who were behind me, shouted for me to get out of the way. I turned and saw a herd of elephants following the path from the direction we had come. It was followed by half a dozen tigers. They did not see us and nothing happened.”
